

THE FAIRSNAPES (YATES & KELSALL)

Preston Guardian 25th November 1916
“VISIT TO FELLSIDE FARMS”

Bleasdale

F A R M I N G

during the
Great War

“...we have a succession of gates to pass through before reaching the picturesque houses of Fairsnape and Higher Fairsnape...”

...occupied respectively by Mr. Roger Yates and Mr. Thomas Kelsall.”

“After a brief visit to Higher Fairsnape we proceed to our destination, the adjoining holding of Fairsnape, with further evidences of enterprise and intelligent management.”

“This is the home of one of the 10 Government bulls in the area of the Longridge Society...”

...and it was only when a ray of light broke through the clouds for a brief spell that it was possible to secure his picture ...”

“... Victor Cardigan has been living the natural life and roaming the pastures during the summer, and has not had a mouthful of artificials. Outside the allotted number of cows in the owner’s herd he has had 65 visitors, practically all in the first six months, and it has now been decided to open the book to a few more nominations.”

